

To Democrats, Republicans and Independents alike:

This email may surprise my fellow Democrats but, as a citizen, I feel obligated to recommend Sheriff Al Lamberti to be retained as Broward County's Sheriff. Why, you might be asking yourself, would David Singer, one of Broward's most visible Democrats, recommend Sheriff Lamberti even though the Sheriff will have a "R" near his name on the ballot on Nov. 4th? Well, there are two reasons. First, Sheriff Al Lamberti is extremely well qualified to continue being Sheriff and has done a superb job in restoring both the ability and the integrity of the Sheriff's Office. Secondly, the Sheriff's Department has no business being a partisan office. Law enforcement is too vital to have partisan politics come into play. I know Sheriff Lamberti feels that way as well.

The Sheriff's opponent in the race has been a Republican and now is a Democrat. Frankly, we Democrats wanted Sheriff Lamberti to change his party as well.

So, as you can see, when the office should be non-partisan, the political party distinctions are blurred.

The two candidates are both qualified. They both have 30 years experience in law enforcement. Sheriff Lamberti has actually been doing the job and doing it well. If it ain't broke, then don't fix it. That, and the fact that he is a very concerned community leader (serving with me, as just one example, on the Board of the American Cancer Society), are the reasons I would urge you to vote for him.

In conclusion, I have been a loyal Democrat in Broward County for 30 years. I have been President of the Young Democrats of Broward County, and a member of the DEC, a Delegate to the Democratic State Convention, and currently a member of the Obama's team in Broward. With all that in my background, I still feel very comfortable recommending Al Lamberti for an office that should be non-partisan. In non-partisan races, such as judicial races, we just pick the most qualified. Well, in this race, I believe Sheriff Lamberti is. He has been doing a good job and will continue to do so.
